THE MEANING AND EFFECTS OF THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS

by Fr. Rick Poblocki

What will cause our resurrection from the dead?

“...Christ’s Resurrection – and the risen Christ Himself – is the principle and source of our future resurrection: ‘Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep...for as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all remain alive’ (1 Corinthians 15:20-22; Catechism, 655).

•“The principle and source”: this phrase means that Jesus Himself and His Resurrection will be the CAUSE of our rising.

When does this “new life” in Christ, leading to our resurrection, begin?

It begins with Baptism. We are already participating or sharing in God’s life – but this life will only come to completion when we are raised from the dead. And yet, even now “the risen Christ lives in the hearts of His faithful while they await that fulfillment. In Christ, Christians “have tasted...the powers of the age to come” (Hebrews 6:5) and their lives are swept up by Christ into the heart of divine life, so that they may ‘live no longer for themselves but for Him Who for their sake died and was raised’ (2 Corinthians 5:15; Cf. Colossians 3:1-3; Catechism, 655).

Will only Christians be saved by the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ?

God desires that all people be saved – even those “outside” the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church is the presupposition for those “outside” the Catholic Church to be saved. This means that if someone knows and understands that the Catholic Church is the true Church of Christ, then they are obliged to embrace the Faith: “He who believes and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe will be condemned” (Mark 16:16). This means that Christ made the Catholic Church a necessary means of salvation, and commanded all to enter it, so that a person must be connected with the Church in some way to be saved (Cf. The New St. Joseph Baltimore Catechism, no. 2, Question 167, p. 80).

How can persons who are not members of the Catholic Church or even non-Christians be saved?

Persons who are not members of the Catholic Church and non-Christians can be saved, if through no fault of their own they do not know that the Catholic Church is the true Church, and yet, they love God, try to do His Will and follow His commandments – for in this way they are connected with the Church by desire. Since Christ commands us to “make disciples of all nations, baptizing them, and teaching them all that Christ commanded (Matthew 28:19-20), we must pray and direct our efforts to helping all enter the Catholic Church where the fullness of the means of salvation lies.

Where was the Lord Jesus between the time He died on God Friday and when He rose on Easter morning?

The Fifth Article of the Apostles Creed tells us that from the time He died on Good Friday until His Resurrection on Easter Sunday, “He descended into Hell...” (Catechism, p. 164).

Did the Son of God actually die in His human nature?

The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains: “By the expression ‘He descended into Hell,’ the Apostles’ Creed confesses that Jesus really did die and through His death for us conquered death and the devil ‘who has power over death’ (Hebrews 2:14)” (See CCC, no. 636).

The National March for Life in Ottawa, the largest annual protest on Parliament Hill, has been set for May 10, 2018, and the theme for this year’s march is ‘PRO-LIFE ALL.IN.’

Pro-lifers will gather on Parliament Hill to demand that our laws once again uphold the right to life which is inherent to every human being. The March for Life is the largest annual demonstration on Parliament Hill, and a sign that ending abortion is the civil rights movement of our day.
