Commentary

Christ is our High Priest. He is not like the priests of the Old Testament who offered goats and bulls as sacrifices.

Christ offered Himself as a sacrifice, as “the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.” In imitation of our Lord, every baptized Christian offers spiritual sacrifices, which are sacrifices of the self.

To find inspiration for her works of sacrifice, the Church looks first to the example that Jesus Christ gave us on the Cross. This is Jesus’ definitive sacrifice. Yet in fact, the entire life of our Lord reveals to us—in example after example—the care He has for us. In the Gospel Reading, we hear that Jesus was not willing to let any need go untended. Jesus couldn’t stand to see the unclean spirits, the sicknesses and diseases of every kind. So He gave the twelve apostles a share in His own power.

In our turn, each one of us is sent forth from Mass in order to care for the needs of others. We have been commanded to undertake the corporal works of mercy: to go and feed the hungry and give drink to the thirsty, to visit the sick and imprisoned, to clothe the naked, to shelter the homeless, and to bury the dead.

Parents have the opportunity to carry out all of these in the home. Likewise, all of us have many opportunities to exercise the corporal and spiritual works of mercy in our neighborhoods. Whether it’s something we organize ourselves, or whether we “plug into” apostolates, all of them are sacrifices of our time and talent by which we can grow in faith.

When we care for others with the grace that comes from God, we recognize that we are small. We exist and live in this world only to serve others, by seeing the Image of God in them. The gift that we have received, we are to give as a gift. That gift is our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Today’s reading offers three significant messages:

1. Discipleship involves mission.
2. The disciples’ mission continues that of Jesus in preaching the coming of the Reign of God and healing the sick.
3. As Jesus calls and gifts us freely, the gifts we have received are likewise to be given freely.

For our shared or personal reflection:

After a brief pause for silent reflection share your answers, ideas or feelings.

1. Do I give of myself freely without expecting rewards or recognition? Do I see myself as a disciple or as a volunteer?”
2. Is my heart “moved to compassion” when I see people in need around me? What do I usually do?

Stained Glass Preservation

We are still accepting donations for the preservation of the Stained Glass windows which has now been completed.

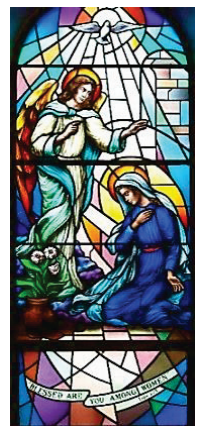

Kindly contact the parish office for more information:

- If you are interested in donating to one of the windows for a special intention or in memory of a loved one.
- If you would like to make a donation.

For your convenience, envelopes are available at the side entrance of the church.

To those have already donated, thank you!

Please support the parish in this project!

PRAYER FOR FATHER'S DAY

St. Joseph, guardian of Jesus and chaste husband of Mary, you passed your life in loving fulfillment of duty. You supported the holy family of Nazareth with the work of your hands.

Kindly protect all the fathers who trustingly come to you. You know their aspirations, their hardships, their hopes. They look to you because they know you will understand and protect them. You too knew trial, labor and weariness.

But amid the worries of material life, your soul was full of deep peace and sang out in true joy through intimacy with God's Son entrusted to you and with Mary, his tender Mother.

Assure those you protect that they do not labor alone. Teach them to find Jesus near them and to watch over him faithfully as you have done. St. Joseph, pray for us!

~ St. John XXIII ~

We are in need of many volunteers to assist in the following on:

Saturday in July [date & time yet to be determined]

1. To wash the outside windows of the Rectory and Church
 2. To paint the railings outside the front of the Church
- If you are able to assist, kindly give your name and telephone # to one of our volunteers or call the parish office. We thank you for your gift of time and effort to the parish.

Congratulations to all our Confirmation Candidates, [17 from Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish and 6 from Our Lady of Good Health Parish], who have received the Sacrament of Confirmation this weekend from our celebrant The Most Reverend Bishop Vincent Nguyen.

May the power of the Holy Spirit guide them as they become strong Disciples of Christ!

A BIG THANK YOU FROM THE SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul Immaculate Heart of Mary would like to thank all the parishioners who have kindly supported our past few initiatives including the Lenten Food Drive and Bundle Up. We also want to thank you for the generosity you have shown to the works of the Society, especially those who are faithfully using regular donation envelopes and through the poor box collection. With your support in the past year, our members have been able to dedicate over 800 volunteer hours, completed 238 visits to our NINs and have helped 70 single adults and 18 families (30 adults & 37 children). Through your generosity and kindness, we are able to put our faith into action and strive to be the face, the hands, and the voice of Christ to people in need.

A big thank you!

Wishing you a safe and enjoyable summer!
