Radical Humility
 The Passion of our Lord
 Mk 14.1-15.47

As we enter Holy Week we are faced with the great paradox of the cross. The crucifixion from a mere human standpoint was an utter and humiliating defeat for Jesus. How could God let Himself be killed by His own creatures? The only way we can recognize the sublime beauty and victory of the cross is if we view it through a Divine lens.

The Jews resisted accepting the necessity of the crucifixion because they expected Him to be a wondrous king that would set them free from the political rule of the Romans. Jesus on the other hand comes as a poor and lowly carpenter sent to set them free not from political tyranny, but from the tyranny of sin. To do this, he “humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death – even death on a cross” (Philippians 2:8). Jesus hid all of His Divine majesty with His humanity and allowed Himself to die for love of us. It was because of this humility that “God highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name” (Philippians 2:9).

As stewards, we may sometimes forget the truth found in the paradox of the cross. It is not our own strength or achievements that make us great but it is rather our humility and obedience to God. The Lord can bring about tremendous good out of our willingness to humbly serve Him wherever He places us. As we enter Holy Week, let us take some time to meditate on the radical humility of Christ crucified and seek to imitate Him in our own lives as stewards.

THE CHAPLET OF THE DIVINE MERCY A POWERFUL PRAYER

On a vision to Sr. Maria Faustina Kowlska in 1935, the Lord revealed a powerful prayer that He wanted everyone to say - the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy - and He promised extraordinary graces to those who would recite it:

Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death. ... Priests will recommend it to sinners as their last hope of salvation. Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy. ... I desire to grant unimaginable graces to those souls who trust in My mercy ... (DIARY, 687).

Encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given you. ... When they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior ... (1541)

Through the chaplet you will obtain everything, if what you ask for is compatible with My will (1731).

Prayed on ordinary rosary beads, the Chaplet is an intercessory prayer that extends the offering of the Eucharist. It may be said at anytime, but our Lord specifically requested that it be used as a novena on the nine days before the Feast of Mercy (the first Sunday after Easter).

It is also especially appropriate to say the Chaplet during the three o'clock hour (recalling the time of Christ's death on the cross). In His revelations to Saint Faustina, Our Lord asked for special prayer and veneration for His Passion during this time.
