Sharing the Gift of Mercy

The readings and Gospel this Sunday are richly steeped with the central Christian mystery that St. Paul proclaims in his first letter to Timothy, that “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.”

This message is the saving grace for all Christians, the lifeline we all hold onto as we journey throughout our time on earth with our eyes fixed heavenward. The forgiveness of our sins is the greatest, most transformative, gift that Christ bestows on our lives.

This gift of forgiveness, although freely given by Christ, needs to be cultivated with ongoing contrition, repentance, and penance. Moreover, this gift should not be held solely for oneself, but graciously shared in a two-fold manner to others. Firstly, as the words of the Our Father so frequently remind us, we must forgive the trespasses of others. In doing so, we are sharing the gift of God’s forgiveness with our neighbour.

Secondly, we should be an example to others of the salvific power of God’s forgiveness in our own lives, so that they may be inspired by our witness and be encouraged to turn to God’s mercy as well. Perhaps one concrete practice we could do adopt is inviting others to join us in receiving the sacrament of Confession. Therefore, as true grateful disciples of Christ let us continually seek His gift of forgiveness and ask ourselves how are we sharing the good news of this great gift with those whom we encounter?

SUMMARY

In the second reading St. Paul proclaims that “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.” The forgiveness of our sins is the greatest, most transformative, gift that Christ bestows on our lives. So as true grateful disciples of Christ, let us continually seek His gift of forgiveness and ask ourselves how are we sharing the good news of this great gift with those whom we encounter?

A Message for Parents

Your support makes all the difference!

Most youth say they got involved in a parish ministry because a parent or family member first invited them.

Your encouragement can draw your child closer to God while helping them grow in virtue and life skills.

Here's why:

- Face-to-Face Connection: Involvement in a youth-related parish ministry builds social skills and emotional awareness. Warm greetings, genuine laughter, teamwork, encouragement, and friendship. These nourish the heart in ways that social media "likes" don't.
- Habit Formation: Committing to a parish ministry builds discipline. As they see the fun benefits of fellowship and accomplishment, they grow stronger in reliability and responsibility.
- Attention Training: Parish ministry requires presence. In altar serving, for example, kids learn to pay attention to Mass, listen to others, and follow through on tasks. Over time, this builds self-control and patience.

"Not me, but God." — St. Carlo Acutis

A Message for Young People

You are important to God!

St. Carlo Acutis, the first young saint from our times, was an ordinary kid who loved soccer, video games, and hanging out with friends, yet he lived with an extraordinary love for God.

He attended Mass frequently, prayed the Rosary, helped the poor, and used his computer skills to share his faith online.

St. Carlo showed that becoming a saint is about giving your best to God in the everyday moments of life.

If a teenager in jeans could inspire the world, imagine what you could do if you deepen your relationship with God!

Take a step toward something meaningful by asking yourself:

- What do I love doing?
- What gives me life?
- How can I use that for God and others?

Interested? Talk to your parents, ask for their blessing, and then contact your parish office together.

*"To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan".
