Sharing what we have Received

This Sunday we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi. This Sunday offers us the opportunity to reflect more deeply on the importance of the Eucharist in our lives as stewards. The Catechism says that, “the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life” (CCC 1324).

The Eucharist being the “source” means that through the reception of Jesus at Mass, we receive the grace to “do all things through Him who strengthens us” (Phil 4:13). As stewards, we should remember that all of our charitable works are made possible and fruitful because of God sustaining us in all things. The Eucharist being the “summit” teaches us that everything we do should point us back to the Mass which should remain the highlight of our entire week. The Mass is everything. It is in the Mass that Jesus’ perfect sacrifice at Calvary is made present before us and is our closest foretaste of Heaven.

This constant interplay of source and summit is what should guide us as stewards. This image is best captured in the common practice of Corpus Christi Eucharistic processions. We first receive Christ in the Eucharist and then we bring Him out into the world for all to see. That is the life of a steward. Let us strive to receive Christ as often as we can, even on weekdays if possible. Once we have received Him in Mass let us then strive to share Him with others.

Summary

The Mass is everything, for the Catechism says that, “the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life” (CCC 1324). This image is best captured in the common practice of Corpus Christi Eucharistic processions in which we first receive Christ in the Eucharist and then bring Him out into the world for all to see. Let us strive to receive Christ as often as we can, even on weekdays if possible, and then seek to share His love within us with others as an act of good stewardship.

Q&A

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE BODY & BLOOD OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST (Corpus Christi)

What is “Corpus Christi”?

Corpus Christi means in Latin, “the Body of Christ.” It is a Solemnity – a Feast of the highest rank in the Catholic Church – honoring the Holy Eucharist, with a special emphasis on the Real Presence of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist.

Why is this Feast called “Corpus Christi,” or “The Body of Christ”?

Corpus Christi derives its name in American usage from the original Latin designation: Festum sanctissimi Corporis Christi (The Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ). Corpus Christi emphasize the reality of Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ, truly and “really” Present in the Eucharist.

Isn't the Eucharist and reality of Christ's Presence already celebrated on Holy Thursday?

Yes, but the focus of Holy Thursday is upon the sorrowful aspect of Christ's sufferings in the Passion. Corpus Christi honors the Holy Eucharist and the Real Presence of Christ in a more joyful way. That's the difference between the two Feasts.

What is meant when Catholics speak of the “Real Presence”?

By the “Real Presence,” Catholics mean that Christ our Lord is truly Present, completely, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity in the Sacrament of the Eucharist.

When did Christ give His Priests the power to change the bread and wine into His Sacred Body and Precious Blood?

Christ gave His Bishops and Priests the power to change bread and wine into His Body and Blood when He made the Apostles Priests of the New Covenant at the Last Supper by saying to them: “Do this in memory of Me.” In this way, the Apostles and their successors were commanded by Our Lord to renew until the end of time the words He spoke and the action He carried out at the Last Supper.

Does this change of the bread and wine into Christ's Body and Blood still happen today?

This change of the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ continues to this very day in the Church, by the Lord Jesus Himself, through His Priests.

How do Priests exercise the power to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ?

Bishops and Priests exercise their power to change the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ by repeating at the Consecration of the Mass the words of Christ: “This is My Body...This is the Chalice of My Blood.”

What takes place when the Priest speaks the words of Consecration over the bread and wine at Mass?

When the Priest speaks the words of Consecration at Mass, transubstantiation takes place – the entire substance of the bread and wine are changed into Our Lord's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. (Transubstantiation is pronounced: tranz-sub-stan-see-ay-shun.) Substance is the essence of something, going far deeper than atoms and molecules!

How can there even be anything like Transubstantiation?

If it be asked how it's possible for transubstantiation to take place, we reply: “By the almighty power of God!”
